

The Light Side

It is dark out there! Have you noticed? This is the time of year when daylight is scarce and the nighttime hours dominate. The Season is reflected in our faith traditions as well, as they speak of dark times and the role light has when it is darkest in life, and how a new day is always dawning. Life has its challenges with change

SPIRITUAL DECEMBER EVENTS

Kimberly Bravo, Spiritual Life Administrative Assistant

As I write this a cool crisp rain has finished falling, leaving behind refreshed plants and washed off sidewalks and buildings, as if God is making the world ready for something special and new. How apropos it is for this sense of preparation to coincide with the beginning of our Advent season. December 1st marks the first Sunday of Advent and the Spiritual Life Department has a number of ways to help us connect with this season when we are called to prepare our hearts, minds and spirits to celebrate the light that has come into the world at the birth of Jesus Christ. This year, we offer for your devotions, an Advent booklet entitled, "What Can't Wait," which takes us stories.

For Christians it is Advent – a time of expectant waiting and preparation for the new day, but the Season is still dark. For Jewish faith beholders, it is Hanukkah, not a major holiday but still a celebration of the festival of lights and the miracle of hope reflected by that light. At Beatitudes Campus it is also the Festival of Lights. It is our tradition! Only after our Festival of Lights does the Campus shine bright once again for the rest of the Season. In all, light is a sign of Hope.

Whether it is a Menorah, Advent Wreath or glimmering trees and balconies, the light keeps on shining, giving

Joe Kane, Dining Services Director

Friday December 6th is the annual employee holiday party. Year after year since Buckwald's is closed for dinner on this day the Bistro and Elaine's staff dutifully work to serve you all in these venues. In doing so, the staff often misses the employee holiday party. WITH YOUR UNDERSTANDING AND SUPPORT WE WILL BE CLOSING THE BISTRO AND ELAINE'S FINE DINING AT 6PM INSTEAD OF OUR USUAL 7PM CLOSING TIME.

We hope that in doing so, our staff can be cleaned up and headed over to the holiday party. Food service is a tough department to work in as we serve food 365 days a year and these folks need a little break so they strength for the journey and proof that the future is destined to be bright.

How many times has that story proven to be true in your life? Just when all seems lost and the future is at its darkest, a light suddenly starts to shine pointing the way to new hope and new possibility.

As you make your way through this Holiday Season, keep looking for the light. Just when it gets darkest, the new day starts to dawn and the days get brighter and brighter. And remember, it is ok to be dark for little bit as it is only the precursor to the light of greater things coming our way in the future to be.
